Anna: Hi , Jane. Where did you go on vacation last week?

Jane: I went to Penang in Malaysia

Anna: Who did you go with ?

Jane: I went with my family.

Anna: What did you do?

Jane: The weather was hot and sunny on Monday, so we went paragliding on the beach. Then in the afternoon, we rode bicycles to Georgetown .

Anna: Sounds great!

Jane: Well, but the next day was not as good . My father and I went to Penang Hill , but the weather was really bad and rainy. We waited a long time for the train and we were wet and cold because we forgot to bring an umbrella

Anna: Oh, no!

Jane: And that's not all! We also didn't bring enough money, so we only had one bowl of rice and some fish.

二. Imagine Jane went to Penang again and had a great day. Fill in the blanks in her diary entries with the correct forms of the verbs in brackets.

Thursday , July 18th

Today was (be) a beautiful day. My father and I went (go) to Penang

Hill again, but this time we walked (walk) to the top.
We started (start) at 9:30 a.m. and saw (see) lots of special Malaysian flowers along the way. About one hour later, we stopped (stop) and drank (drink) some tea. Then we walked (walk) for another two hours before we got (get) to the top. I was (be) quite tired, and the city looked (look) wonderful from the top of the hill!
